CONTINUO

for the continued support of opera
at the University of Toronto

We invite you to become a member of CONTINUO – for the continued support of opera at the University of Toronto.

CONTINUO members provide ongoing support of the training of our young singers in the Opera Division by providing annual donations that fund opera productions, master classes, workshops and other activities that help distinguish our opera program as one of the best in North America.

In recognition of your support, you will receive advance notice of and exclusive access to special Opera Division events, including a post-performance reception following opening night and a private master class once a year.

For more information on this and other giving opportunities at the Faculty of Music, please call our Development Office at (416) 946-3580.
